

Vasantha Erraguntla

Vasantha Erraguntla spent her entire professional career of a quarter century at Intel Corporation, half in the US and half in Bangalore. She is a two-time Intel Achievement Award recipient and has co-authored over 15 IEEE journal and conference papers and holds 6 patents. She served on the organizing committee and technical program committees of various international technical conferences.

Vasantha is passionate about people, technology, and development. She has volunteered with various organizations advocating and promoting literacy, women's empowerment, STEM education and technology advancement and now continues to do so full-time.